

Accounts Receivable Services

Improve your financial performance by augmenting your accounts receivable

Accelerate cash while improving productivity

nThrive's Accounts Receivable (A/R) Services allows your organization to concentrate on core business functions, while we manage all or part of your active accounts receivable including self-pay and third-party insurance accounts. nThrive understands the challenges health systems face in managing a high volume A/R and the issues that can cause delays in reimbursement. nThrive provides remote billing and collections services from our service center to help streamline your business and ensure receivables are converted to revenue quickly and effectively. Our approach:

- Delivers predictable and consistent cash collections for A/R segments where your health system is experiencing diminishing results
- Re-deploys health system in-house staff working lower yielding A/R segments to higher yielding payors
- Establishes a safety net for effective A/R management for aged accounts
- Provides A/R performance reporting, valuation and consulting

State-of-the-art technology

nThrive applies deep revenue cycle expertise and state-of-the-art technology to maximize your health system's reimbursement. Our high-quality services, collaboration, quick turnaround time and innovation set us apart from other service providers. nThrive ensures that our services are specialized to suit the unique needs of your organization. You will be able to:

- Receive daily updates for all account and financial information
- Update account notes on all activities to your patient accounting system
- Manage your A/R accounts effectively with:
  - Auto assignment of accounts to individuals or groups
  - Real-time dynamic work lists
  - User-defined automated workflow from import to account resolution
  - Account dashboard for simple viewing and ease-of-use
